

Wisconsin has an effective No Call list in service. Please do not alter or change this list as it weakens the program already in place. If I do not want to receive calls at home, I should have the right to request this of those who call, which is why this list is important. Maybe the FCC should use Wisconsin's program as the prototype for the country.